

King George's Field NEWSLETTER no. 5

Full Steam Ahead!

As this newsletter is delivered, John and Barry Varney will be starting work on the new building. For safety reasons, the whole site will be cordoned-off and must be kept clear of unauthorised visitors. Please ensure that everyone in your household is aware of the dangers, and we ask all dog owners to ensure their furry friends are safely on the lead when approaching the site.

The May Day Vote

With over 100 votes cast in total, we are pleased to announce that the name of the new building will be:

King George's Community and Sports Centre

In next month's newsletter, we'll reveal the results of our May Day survey on the clubs, classes and activities that local residents would like to see on offer at the Centre. Our thanks to everyone who visited the stall and voted.

Keeping in Touch

If you have any suggestions or comments for the Committee, you can e-mail us at lowerheyford.newfacility@gmail.com or leave a note (marked 'FAO King George Field Committee of Management') at the bar of the Bell, or the Horse and Groom.

The Minutes of all our meetings are on the Heyford website:

Photo Competition

Our judges, Max Scraggs, Denise Ball and Robin Barker, met on 28th April to consider the anonymised entries of the first Lower Heyford and Caulcott Photography competition. We had no less than 30 entries, showing scenes from the two villages. Scenes of the river and canal proved very popular!

All the entries were displayed at the May Day Fete, including the following, which were 'placed' by our judges:

Over 16s Category

Winner: Melissa Chadderton
Highly Commended: Linda Robertson
Highly Commended: Melissa Chadderton
Commended: Jenny Tamblyn

Under 16s Category

Winner: Daisy-May Nelson
Highly Commended: Indigo Chadderton
Highly Commended: Cameron Hughes

A selection of photos, including the winning entries, will be framed and displayed in the new building. Following this year's success, the competition may run again – so it's not too soon to start taking pictures for next year!
